

Accidents

This insurance offers financial support if you become permanently disabled or pass away due to an accident. You will then receive a lump-sum of money which you can use for home adjustments, for example. The insurance also provides a compensation if you end up in a hospital as a result of an accident, and if any of your personal belongings have been damaged due to an accident. Your descendants will receive a sum if you pass away due to an accident.

You're insured during your shifts via Temper.
